

WWLHIN - Background

WWLHIN Investments in Cambridge in 2008-2009

The Waterloo Wellington Local Health Integration Network has invested in a number of health care initiatives in Cambridge. These programs and services are being delivered by health service providers to ensure there is a sustainable health care system to meet the needs of Cambridge and area residents.

Initiative or Sector	Funding
Aging at Home * *Includes: Connections to Health Aging at Fairview Mennonite Home, GEM Nurses, First Link program for Alzheimer's patients and palliative care.	564,248
Long-Term Care   Includes: Over-bed, PSW and RPN funding	927,435
Transition Bed Program	778,500
Hospital   Includes: Wait times strategy, critical care nurse training, general surgery	4,942,100
Stabilization funding for providers in all sectors	486,689
TOTAL	$7,698,972

February 20, 2009